Subject

Plague Staff retention - Mangalore
half year ending 31.3.1924

The plague inspr is to be paid pro forma from while his services are to be utilized not only for observation purposes but for supervising rat killing operations. The Coll. says, in view of the present financial stringency, he does not think the Council should on account half his pay from its own funds the supervisory if his services are utilized for rat destruction operations also.

reduction wages of.

2. Moreover the plague inspr appears to be an unqualified man, since his pay proposed for him is Rs 30 + 10 (temporary addition to pay). In connection with the question of the Plague Standing orders of the D.P.H. recommended that the Special training for plague work should be discontinued and the Govt agreed with him in G.O.
